“ So sorry for the loss of your dear father. We are so blessed to have had the privilege of meeting him and all of you in Venice FL. Lots of great memories with him and all you at WCG. I immediately loved dad who shared our same passion for politics. Enjoyed our many conversations! He will be missed. He is now reunited with his dear wife. Sending hugs and prayers to you all. “ To the D’Amico family. I’m so sorry for your loss. I had the pleasure to work with Joe in the machine shop at the Cross Company back in the seventies. What I remember about Joe during those years were the trips to Hawaii he and his wife took every year. No matter what was going on in the shop, the conversation with Joe always seemed to wind up about the trip they had just come back from or the trip they were about to take. Joe was a great guy to work with.

“ I would always tease him about his accent and always said to him "For the love of God Joe, you have lived here for most of your life and you still can't speak English." He was loved by so many but now he has been reunited with his beloved Kay. R.I.P. Maui Joe. I am so blessed to have known you and so happy that you came into my life.
