“ I remember Joe as a friendly and helpful person. He was also a good boat navigator; and an airplane pilot. It made me grateful to only be a boater, and not have to worry about that "third dimension"-altitude. Even if the boat engines conked out, we were going to stay at sea level. Joe was also a good sport, and didn't complain about sleeping on a shelf above the V-berth in the bow of the boat. He was a good person, and will be missed. --Brian Briggs

“ Joseph will be very missed down here in Stuart. We shared many happy hours and a Columbus Day Regatta and a chartered boat from Bahamas for Regatta time in Abaccos. Rest in Peace my Friend, Camille Galindo
