“Tracy, Julia and Abbie, I am so glad we all have had the privilege to get to know you all. I am so glad our oldest girls Julia and Kayla became best friends. All of our worries, just became mom worries and we have seen they are there for each other as we are for all if you. May the time you had with your husband and their daddy be days of joy, happiness and memories. You took of Joe to the very end and I am so proud of you. As hard as it was, you did it. Your girls were with their daddy when he needed them the most, these are the times you will remember, how you just kept doing for him to make him as comfortable as you could. We love you guys and are here for you whenever you need us. Mr. Joe is watching you girls everyday, its hard not having him here physically but as you know, I give you hope. You will grow stronger as a family and learn thing you never thought you could do, trust me, I'll show you. Love you girls and take it easy by day.”

“My heart breaks for his wife and daughters, I didn't know him well but he was much too young to leave us. My prayers will be with his family during this horrible time. My god comfort them in their time of grief.”

“Tracey , Julia & Abbey ,
I sat up last night out til midnight going through photo albums , looking at pics from New Year's Eve 2000 , pics from our Fitzpatrick camp at Higgins lake , it brought back a lot of fond memories , Joe always had a smile and something funny to talk about , what a great sense of humor . I haven't lived in the city for 11 years , I made a lot of friends down there at Fitzpatrick , Joe was one of them , I will always remember him fondly , he was ALWAYS UPBEAT AND FUNNY ,IN GOOD HEALTH AND WHEN HE WAS SICK , JOE IS A TRUE MAN IN EVERY WAY POSSIBLE , He fought a courageous battle , his love for his family was very evident , he gleamed with pride when ever he spoke of you all . May God be with you , I KNOW JOE IS WITH HIM , smiling down , Scott Reeves”

“Jody,
So sorry to hear that your brother has lost his battle with this awful disease. My thoughts go out to you and your family during this time of loss. Hopefully he will now be at peace.”

“Joe was, and will always be the strongest person that I have ever met. He definitely didn't let his battle with ALS get him with ease. He fought the entire way with EVERYTHING he had. I am so very thankful for all the years of memories and laughs that we have shared. He was definitely the life of the party. His love for his family and friends, is just amazing. He would do any and everything for them. He left with his girls in good hands. We will be there today, tomorrow and each passing day after. There will NOT be a day that goes by that Joe will not be missed or thought of. I love you Joe! XOXOStacey”

“ "Tracy, Julia and Abby, I am so sorry Joe is gone. He fought so hard through this horrific disease. He was able to live his life to fullest every day. Even during his suffering he remained positive. He taught me so much about my own life. I am learning to appreciate everything God has given me. It could be gone at any given moment. Joe was truly an inspiration to everyone he met. He fought with everything in him until his last breath. Duke Drive will never be the same without his smart a comments and his contagious laugh. He will be greatly missed. Tracy you are the strongest person I know. You have taken care of his every need from day one without any hesitation. This is the meaning of true love. You and the girls made his life complete. The love you both shared will live on through your two beautiful girls. You gave him his dying wish. He was able to die surrounded by the people who meant the most to him in his own home. Tracy you are such a wonderful role model for your girls. You taught them that family always come first and you take care of them no matter what. May God bless you through this difficult time. I love you all and will be here for whatever you need."
