“ Joe was my sis in laws cousin, but I didn't really know Joe until the last 2 years when his family moved in next door to us. I quickly learned what a hands on, dedicated father Joe was to his 3 daughters...always outside playing with them, taking them to school, cooking dinner, taking them to dance and field trips. I am grateful for our chats on the driveway and friendly hellos and good mornings on the driveway and school drop off. Joe was a wonderful person, gone too soon and will be missed by many. Prayers to his beautiful girls and family who will forever have a pain in their heart without him here. Until we see you again Joe. Rest in Peace.

“ *Oh my dearest Joe, I can't believe that I am never going to see your smiling face come through my door again. You were so special to me in so many ways!!! You lit up a room with your presence. You were so full of life and always so happy. God must have needed you up in heaven, or maybe you were just too special to stay with us. We will miss you forever Joe!! Please watch over your beautiful girls...you were so very proud and in Love with them. I will always Love You and I will always miss you. Go Fly High now Joe and may you rest in peace. I know you are so happy to see your Dad!!!
