“ Dear Sobek Family, Please accept this post and a token of my heartfelt sympathies. As you reflect on the life of your loved one, Joseph, his legacy and the memories he has left for you to treasure, may your hearts be comforted in knowing that Our Loving God also cares for you (1Peter 5:7; Psalm 83:18).He is mindful of your pain, your grief and sorrow and he is anxious to mend your broken hearts and bind up your painful spots. (Psalm 147:30) He understands your desire to be with your loved one again and will fulfill that desire by means of a resurrection for John 5:28,29 states: ...the hour is COMING when all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out... What a wonderful hope we have for the future! The joy of seeing our loved ones again! So,yes, even though tears will flow and hearts will pain, God promises that the 'tribulation' will be 'momentary and light' when compared with the wonderful future he has prepared for those who love him. He (God) will wipe away the tears from all faces and DEATH will be no more! (Rev. 21:4) Indeed, a beautiful tomorrow awaits us! (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.
