

Julianne Rose Lenda

July 6, 1945 - June 20, 2026

Julianne "Julie" Lenda, age 80, of Warren, MI, passed away on June 20, 2026.

A beloved sister, aunt, and friend, Julie will be remembered for her warmth, advice, and generosity.

Julie was born in Detroit, MI to Anne and John Lenda and was raised in Hamtramck and Warren. She is predeceased by her parents and brother, Stanley Lenda.

She then spent her career in high school education. As a teacher, coach, counselor, and administrator, she served our community in shaping the growth of students at Transfiguration, St. Clement and Van Dyke Schools.

Julie enjoyed spending time with friends and family and was a long-time Detroit Tigers fan.

She is survived by her sister-in-law Genevieve Lenda, niece Angela (Jon Fleck) Lenda, devoted friends, including Melissa, Danielle, and Chris Bobee, and extended family.

Julie's kindness, laughter, and love will always be remembered by those she touched. Donations may be made in her memory to the National Kidney Foundation at <https://www.kidney.org/>.

Visitation will be held on Friday, June 26, 2026 from 9-11:30am with a Funeral Service beginning at 11:30am at Wujek-Calcaterra & Sons, Inc., 36900 Schoenherr at Metro Parkway (16 Mile), Sterling Heights. Interment to take place at Resurrection Cemetery, Clinton Township, MI.

It's a memory that warms the soul
The conversation and love you could forget no no return, but an embrace of your heart and with each beat, you gift us a world painted with kindness. May you never lose sight of the truth - I cherish every moment in breath the same air, then a happy discovery of all life's riches. My deepest wish for you is that your days are filled with the same
