“ As I write this, it’s with a heavy heart. I’ve known Karen or “Mom” as I’ve affectionately called her my whole life. I remember her laugh and warm smile and always saying my name three times when addressing me. She was a sweet person, but she could be mean when necessary (like when Pam and I shrunk her cashmere sweater). I always felt so loved by her and a special closeness we shared. I’ll remember going to the farm, swimming in the backyard pool, going to get Towne Club pop, going to look at horses, always having a jar of Juicy Fruit gum on the counter, coming to my 25th wedding anniversary party. So many more memories, I could go on and on. I’m glad though she’ll be with Pam and Grandma now. Rest In Peace Mom. Thanks for all the wonderful memories. I love you. Goobie Goobie Goobie 🙏🏻
