We became "sisters" when we married into the Bahr-Chipman families. I knew you were special from the first time I met you those many years ago. Though our paths took us in different directions, I always enjoyed the times we shared together during summer vacations and some holidays, Over the years I came to know you as a devoted wife and loving mother. You took in stride both the good and the bad that life sent you with dignity and strength. You loved your children deeply but what really stood out was your love and strong commitment to your husband,

Bob .As the saying goes, your union was "a match made in heaven". You were a team, never wavering in that special love you had for each other. I will miss you. Your "sister" Sandie
