“ I just happened to log in to an old Facebook profile and saw. This is heartbreaking! Lauren and I went to school together. I'm kind of on the reclusive side but Lauren was always cool. Great to talk to. We shared many a laughs. The world is definitely sadder without her in it. My heart goes out to her, and the loved ones she leaves behind!

“ Lauren, I don't think words can do justice to how devastated I was to hear you had passed on from this world. My deepest condolences to your family for this unimaginable loss. I'll always remember you as one of the kindest, funniest people I have ever met, and a better friend than anyone could ask for. The memories of the good times we've had, be it rolling dice and slaying monsters, geeking out over Super Sentai, or just hanging out, I will carry with me and cherish all the days of my life. I'm so sorry for not keeping in touch as much as I should; I guess we'll have a lot of catching up to do the day we meet again. Until then, I'll be missing you. Rest well, old friend.

“ Dear Lauren,

I am very saddened to learn of your passing. You were the sweetest of all of Amanda's closest childhood friends. I'll never forget your sixth-grade performance of Cher's "Believe" in the Collins gymnasium-cafeteria; you NAILED it (I remember glitter and the black one-shoulder dress!), and the audience was floored (including the adults, and that says something!). Even having been in second or third grade then, I'll never forget the feeling of amazement in the room and the immense pride it gave your mother and classmates (and me too!).

Over the years, we've seen each other more sparingly, but I will never forget your warm compassion and care for others. You will be missed, including by endless others from your past.

*Much love from Amanda's Brother,

“ Lauren, you are a dear and everlasting piece of my life. I will always cherish the memories we made over the years from Collins, Heritage, and riding together to Stevenson in the mornings. We had great times singing together, going to the Backstreet Boys concert, cooking and our Dodge Park walks. You are pure love and light, remembered forever with a smile. My dear friend, I love you eternally.
