“Amy, Dan and Family, So sad to hear the news about Lauren. Know that our thoughts and prayers have been with you often since we got the news. It's so mysterious how God chooses to bring His own home, but it's comforting to know that He will be closer than ever to her family and friends still in this world and pave the way for all of you to join her in Heaven someday. Wishing you special hugs and continued prayers from afar. May God's ever abundant peace be with all of you always. Always your sister in Christ from your previous home in Columbus. Breda

“ I worked with Lauren at the AMC 30 for a year or so. She trained me when I was hired. She always had a smile on when anyone was around. I loved having her as a OC and wish the family all the blessings, and that God is watching over everyone who was effected by the loss of this wonderful, kind hearted girl. You will be missed Lauren.

“ Mr. and Mrs. Roche and family, I never got around to signing the book at the viewing, and I meant to, so I was glad to find that there was a way for me to do so here. I just want to say again how sorry I am for your loss, and how I hope that you are able to come together and recover from this as a family. I am praying for you, and for lauren, and for all those who have felt pain from this loss. I stand by what I said at the funeral, that we all should feel safer knowing she is now looking out for all of us. She is in a place with no worries, no pain, and only happiness and we all know how much she loved to be the happy cheerful person. She IS a fantastic person, and still is. She is going to be a fantastic angel for us all. Matthew 5:4 Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. My best, Travis

“ Dear Dan, Amy and Family -

Deidre has kept me informed of your sad news. She asked me the other night, "what do I say?" The only thing i can think of to say is that all of you are in our prayers, here in Arkansas as well. I remember Lauren as a very beautiful sweet child. I pray God will help with your grief. Life is short, tender and real. I pray also you can see the wonderful happy memories of Lauren as you lay your heads down to rest. God Bless you all and Lee, Suzanne and I will continue to pray for your peace and ask God to be with you all.

Fondly,
