“ I was shocked and sad to hear of Lisa's passing. Her friendly disposition, great smile and engaging stories, she was a joy to be around . Such a kind soul. Lisa was requested often for cases due to her competent and compassionate skills as a CRNA. I am sorry God requested her home all too soon. All the lives she has touched were blessed to have known her. As a coworker over the years ,I will miss her light she brought where ever see was . My deep condolences to the family , and work family who knew Lisa. Such a beautiful soul, inside and out. Linda R. Fraga

“ Dear Joe, Your beautiful words of Lisa prompted a sweet memory of her devotion and love of you. We were "girltalking" and she mentioned that she knew in high school that there was no doubt then that you and she would marry. She said both your families wanted you to date other people, so you did...and then you would come home and talk to each other about these dates!! I thought to myself at the time that your trust and love was so deep to endure such testing and the passage of the high school and college years. Matt and I are heartbroken for you and Alex and Alyssa and all in your family. Tammy Dukatz

“ I was blessed to have met Lisa back in 1990 when I first started working at Beaumont. I was a nurse for a few years already, but new to the OR. Lisa was a student in the nurse anesthesia program. I was immediatly drawn to her. She exuded confidence, compassion, and enthusiasm for her job. She was always prepared & organized for the day ahead and greeted everyone with a smile or a gentle touch placing those in her care at ease. She carried those traits through out her career. Her friendship will be held deep in my heart.

“ - Our Lisa - Was An Angel - With Love, Joe

*I was 15 and my family moved to Clinton Township My Aunt Victoria got me a job at the nursing home where she worked
I took out trash and cleaned floors and stocked shelves*

Zia Victoria said to me, "I got the most beautiful girl in the world for you - I am going to introduce you"

My first day of work she wasn't there Zia Victoria said "She's not here today - but don't worry - when you see her you'll know"

A few days later I was walking down the hallway - there was a girl in the hallway

*She had beautiful tan legs
She had beautiful blonde hair
She was wearing white "Brooks" running shoes with little white socks*

*She had on white shorts and a red blouse
She was standing next to a white 10-speed bike
She turned to me and smiled and said hello
I was stunned
At that instant
At 15 years old*

I knew I was in the presence of an Angel

*An Angel
My Lisa is an Angel*

*Lisa walked and lived and loved as an Angel among us
I was gifted by God to live and laugh and love and be loved by an Angel*

*Lisa had a light that shined from her heart - and shined from her soul - with a flowing, calming embrace
When you met my Lisa you know you were in the presence of an Angel*

*Lisa was beautiful
Lisa's smile lit up the room
Her laugh was contagious
Her heart was pure
Her touch told you how much she cared and that you were safe in her presence*

*Lisa was kind
Lisa was humble
Lisa was genuine
Lisa was compassionate
Lisa was loving
Lisa was magnetic
Lisa was beautiful*

My Lisa was beautiful

The love and goodness and kindness and compassion that poured from Lisa's heart and soul let you know if you were with her that you were in the presence of an Angel

*Lisa lived her life caring for the sick, for the injured, for the broken - with love and compassion for all
Lisa saved lives, countless lives*

Lisa was my Angel

*Pain
What is pain?
What is the pain of losing an Angel?*

Lisa was an Angel

Incomprehensible Pain

*The darkness, the void, the sadness of losing an Angel
It's the darkness of the room that has lost the light
It's the cold of the earth that has lost the sun
Its the void, the emptiness, the silence of the universe*

*The pain is infinity
The pain is infinity multiplied by an eternity
Infinity multiplied by eternity
That is the pain of losing an Angel*

*I had to buy a casket to bury my Angel
What kind of casket do you buy an Angel
A casket of white and bright
and love and comfort
and peace
and rest
That is the casket I had to buy for my Angel*

*That is the pain of losing an Angel
That is the pain of losing our Lisa*

*I met an Angel when I was 15 years old
She was beautiful and kind and loving and graceful
She filled my world with love and joy and laugh and light*

*God gave me an Angel
Lisa was an Angel*

I have no memories of my life without Lisa

Our wedding rings are engraved with "Our Love is Eternal"

Now my Angel is gone

*And all I have left are the memories
My heart
My heart is a void for eternity*

Such is the pain of losing an Angel

My Lisa was an Angel

I love you Lisa

I love you for eternity

“ I was truly blessed to work with Lisa over 3 decades. So competent, caring and graceful. Our Anesthesia Technician team loved Lisa and she treated them all so kindly. All would agree it was going to be a good day if Lisa was in your OR. Even on a bad day you may have heard “thank god it was Lisa in there”

I recall Lisa at classes and Saturday seminars dressed impeccably, sitting up tall with perfect posture. Her presence made you feel like you were somewhere important and I swear everyone else checked their posture after being there with her 😊

When my mother needed anesthesia I had my pick of any CRNA. I wanted competent, compassionate, caring. I chose Lisa.

My deepest condolences to her family and to all that knew and loved her.

“ Dear Joe and family,
Some of the fondest memories of Lisa most recently for me were her and I working out at Lifetime Fitness in Rochester Hills. We both liked to do the step and workout classes and we would line up our steps in the back row and laugh about keeping up with the instructor's routine. We would chat after class and catch up about family and life. It was always fun to see her and connect. She will be missed and carried in the hearts of many. So very sorry for your loss.

“ Dearest Joe, Alyssa, Alex, Denise, and all the members of the Reichenbach family,

I can't express the utter grief I feel over the loss of Lisa. My heart aches for all of you.

I LOVED Lisa. I can honestly say that she was one of my most favorite people in the world. She was genuinely kind, loving, hardworking, and funny (though I don't think she ever tried to be!) Her family was everything to her. Joe, she loved you with all of her heart and was such an excellent mother to Alyssa and Alex. She was so proud of you both! Lisa cherished her Reichenbach family. I know she relished having her sisters and her mom nearby.

I've always been in awe of Lisa's abilities. She was not only a superb nurse anesthetist but also a master at anything she set her mind to. And Lisa was so humble! I was astounded at the transformation of her garden, the amount of backbreaking work it required. She downplayed her efforts and just wanted to share the joy she found in the beauty of the flowers.

I will miss her forever.

Her laughter was contagious and despite having to wear masks in the OR, her smile would still shine through to light up every room she walked into. She touched so many lives with her kindness, especially the patients she cared for, whom she would offer a hand to hold if they felt scared for surgery. “ I met Lisa over 15 years ago at Beaumont Royal Oak, and her big smile and demeanor have been the same ever since. Easily one of the best CRNAs I ever worked with, I always knew our patients were in the best possible hands, receiving the best possible care. “ Lisa was a perfectionist and excelled at everything she did, yet never passed judgement on others. She lit up any room with her laughter, smile and stories, and always included everybody. She was always dressed to the nines and ready to celebrate any occasion (she loved "vitamin drinks", lol). We met in college, and if my memory serves me correctly, I believe Joe used to hang my now husband Mark out the window of Hamlin Hall! Lisa and I became friends immediately. 40 years later, she is still the same Beautiful, fun-loving, intelligent, compassionate friend that she was then. Fly with the angels my friend. No doubt, you will be leading them in no time! My sincerest condolences to Joe, Alyssa and Alex and all of Lisa's family and friends.

“ I was closest to Lisa in our high school years, but she always stayed in my heart and thoughts of being a treasured friend. We'd comment to each other on FB time to time and I was determined that we'd get together sometime again. I knew she would be that same kind, down-to-earth, beautiful woman that I knew her to be back in high school. I still relish in memories of spending time at her house and talking with her super nice parents. There was always action and fun with her big family and siblings. I am so sad to hear of your passing, Lisa. Joe and family, you are in are my prayers. Lisa will be a gleaming angel in Gods hands no doubt. You will be missed Lisa.

“ To know Lisa was to love her. We met in the late 1980”s when she was a nurse in PACU and I worked in the OR. Then we went to Anesthesia School and became study and thesis partners. I remember our study sessions... we would pull our notes out, mine were a bit of a mess.....Lisa”s were in outline form...with highlighting and bullet points....she was the most organized person that I ever knew, and I was in awe! This carried to her work as a CRNA. She was always prepared for anything and every thing. Her meticulous research and attention to detail made her a great anesthetist. She was a great resource person and always ready to help her colleagues. What I loved the most about Lisa was her infectious smile and laugh, her big heart and her sincere concern for others. She always spoke about Joe, Alyssa, Alex, her Mother and her entire family with pride and love. She will be in our hearts forever . Valerie and Jim Cummins

“ I had the pleasure and honor of working with Lisa and found her to be an outstanding anesthetist who truly cared about doing things the right way. But more importantly she was a wonderful person who made the time you spent with her so special. To put it simply, she just always made you feel happy to be there with her. She was such a nice person and we will miss her so much.
