“*Dear Charlie & Family.
We want to send out condolences to all of you.
God will get you through this difficult time if you give him all the pieces , he will mend your broken heart.
I have known Lorraine since she was a neighbor of my grandmother on Leander in Detroit. Later in our lives we became friends again at Our Lady of Good Counsel, involved with the Dad's Club and Family Days. our children classmates. Lorraine will always be remembered for a smile and making others smile too. God will dry the tears and replace them with everlasting memories.
Love and prayers.*”

“Lorraine is one incredible woman. She could always make me smile. She was a dear friend to my parents. She was full of life. She raised all great kids. She was a devoted wife. She was one of the bright spots of my childhood. She will be missed. I love her. I wish her eternal life. She was probably met in heaven by my dad. She will welcomed with open arms.”
