“ Loved Zxann to pieces she had the gift of gab. she could meet a complete stranger and talk to them like she knew them all her life. She made a career of it and was good at it. Xzann made sure you had your favorite things when you visited. She always sent you on your way home with your favorite cookie. I grew to love her even though she took my brother from me. 🙏

“ I will never forget our Christmas vacation at uncle Rod and aunt Zxanns house. My brother and I were just young boys, but aunt Zxann knew what it took to make young boys happy. That was the meals she prepped. I still talk about it today of the biggest feast I have ever seen. Aunt Zxann found that I liked orange juice and Ryan liked bananas. She kept these items in her home and ready at all time for us boys. Something so simple that she found that could put a smile on your face and make a memory for life. Aunt. Zxann I would like to toast this glass of orange juice to you and know one day we could have that big breakfast again with some Oj. I love you

To add on to what my brother James said, Aunt Zxann always wanted you to know you were always thought of and loved. Even with the smallest of things like cooking (humming throughout) making sure you had plenty to eat (oh come on, you can eat that), to every Christmas away getting a card to remind you you are thought of. Those cards continued throughout and even passed to each one of my children separately. They always felt loved getting their own individualized card. Aunt Zxann, you will always be remembered and I love you so very much.

I will definitely miss seeing her handwriting on each of those cards. May you rest in peace Aunt Zxann, it was an honor to know you.

Xzann was such a dear friend. We had so many great times together, traveling to Europe and many other places. We met when we came to Bethesda Christian Church. She and Rod were our group leaders in our catechism class. She had such a deep faith and commitment to her Lord. We had wonderful times together at their home with such delicious foods that Xzann made. Later, we had a little lunch group that met monthly at different restaurants to enjoy time together as we grew older. She suffered through many years with physical issues, but she always did her very best to overcome. I know that Xzann is safely home with her Lord and Savior, but my deep sympathy goes out at this time to Rod, Greg, Faith, Abby, and Nate. May God comfort them in their loss.
