“ I wanted to write on behalf of the Rice family as to what a profound presence Brother Lou Vitto had on our lives, both in and outside of church. A great loss to the community and to The Church of Jesus Christ, but a beautiful life that was full and in service to God.

“ Lucid and kind. My childhood barber for over 20 years. I wish I (as an adult) had more moments to talk to him. Anything I could do to keep the conversation going after the cut: giving a fat tip, being the last customer, sweeping my own hair, I didn't care. He and the rest of his crew are reflections of my own grandfather. To speak to someone without a thick accent was a plus! Ciao, my fellow Calabrian. -Alex Portell

“ Only guy who knew how to cut my hair.....he's with his wife now which was his ultimate goal. We had many discussions on the anguish of losing the love of our lives, farewell friend, tell the big guy I said HI and I'll be coming along in due time!
