“ My heartfelt condolences to Dennis, Bobby and Kevin, my childhood friends/neighbors on Somerset. What beautiful memories I have of your family and your amazing mother. I just now learned of her passing. She was the kind of neighbor you would love to visit because of the warmness and laughter in her home and special homemade treats she would offer. To this day I have used her cookie cutter recipe that is always a hit. She was so generous and kind and so very creative with her redecorating projects. I'm sure she's loving Heaven right about now, especially to be with your Dad again after all this time.

“ What a wonderful woman/ neighbor Mrs “Z” was to our family on Somerset. My late husband was recruited to be a Boy Scout Leader by her youngest son. Her sour cream cookies are still my children's favorite cookie. What a long life she had. May she rejoice in heaven as she so deserves. 🙏❤️ Diane Beauchamp Hurt

“ All our prayers go out to the Zacharski family. Aunt Marge was one of the strongest and hardest working women we knew. I'm sure she's baking all she wants now, and playing pinochle for a nickel a game, dime a set. With our deepest sympathies, Mark and Cindy Cendrowski

“ Heartbroken and grateful for the presence of this woman in my life. It is an honor to be her grandson and if there is one thing we know, she's already living on her own terms up in Heaven. Grateful for all I have learned from you. Grateful for the memories I have with you. Miss you. Love you. <3 Jeff

“ Mrs. Z was always one of my favorite adults while growing up - and, an excellent Den Mother for our Cub Scout Den. She always had something kind to say, and enjoyed a good laugh when we boys did something funny. My mother and Mrs. Z became close friends over time, and sometimes their laughter from the floor above could be heard clearly all the way into the basement below, giving all of us a big smile. As we boys moved from grade school, to high school, to college, and beyond, I came to appreciate even more what a great role model and friend she always had been for all of us. Clearly, a very special Lady. She will be missed. Dennis Bonucchi

“ Mrs Z was some I admired my entire life. My friends’ mom was a second mom to me. A classy lady and an elegant charming person. Will always remember her kindness and generosity. She provided opportunities for us kids and wisdom to us as adults. We will always remember her well.
