“Dear Mother, "HE saw the road was getting rough, the hills were hard to climb, HE closed your weary eyelids and whispered, "Peace be Thine." It broke my heart to lose you, but you didn't go alone, for part of me went with you, the day God called you home." This passage from your Holy Card helps me to cope and know that you're in a better place now. You were a beautiful, smart, determined woman and you outlived them all. I was always inspired by your abilities, and I learned a lot from you. I knew you well - you were feisty but fair, more honest than opinionated, and generous of heart. You inspired my love of music and the arts, and you outshined them all in your day. You were the glamour girl of the family and Dad was proud to enter a room with you on his arm. You made your mark and did it your way, and I admired that. You and Dad also saved me from the brink, and I gave you my unconditional acceptance and love. No two parents did more for a daughter than you did. You have my heartfelt thanks and gratitude. You're with the family now - and I know Dad was there to greet you with open arms. You meant more to me than you ever knew - and I won't be the same without you. But I'll see you and Dad again. Your sister, nieces and nephews gave you a beautiful last tribute along with me and Bob. I hope we honored you with the respect and love you deserve. I miss you already, but I know you'll be around watching over Bob and me. I tried to give you the help you needed, now I'll give you all the prayers I can say. Til we meet again - With a saddened heart - All my love and thanks -"

“*"Aunt Marge-
With Love and sadness-
Your heart was always as big as the sky, and
Your kindness could fill an ocean.
You will be missed."*
