

Marino Gai

October 18, 1943 - March 4, 2021

Gai, Marino March 4th 2021 Age 77. Beloved husband of Giovanna “Joann” (nee Sarti). Loving father of Joe Gai, Diane Gai and Mark Gai (Kimberly) Gai. Proud Nonno of Marina, Stefano, Caroline, Wyatt, Marino, Libby and Serena. Beloved son of the late Giuseppe Gai and the late Colomba Cenci. Dearest brother of Pasquina Gai (Carlo) Toni and the late Rosanna (the late Orlando) Marani. Dear brother-in-law of Pia (the late Giancarlo) Busignani and Venere (Bruno) Fabbri. Survived by many nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends. Marino was born in the Republic of San Marino, he left home at the age of 18 and moved to France to help support his family back home. At the age of 21, he decided to immigrate to the United States searching for new opportunities. He began working in the construction business and a new passion and determination was born. He married Giovanna Sarti in 1968, whom he met at his aunt’s house. Through their union, they would have three children. He tirelessly worked in construction and quickly became a business owner. His work ethic was strong, but he always found time for his family and friends. After thirty years of marriage, he and his wife became grandparents, and a new passion was born again. He spent his retirement years dotting on his grandchildren and meeting all of their needs. He loved the outdoors and would spend every moment he could outside. He enjoyed gardening, cutting grass with his tractors, home improvements, going to and watching Detroit Tiger’s games and spending time with friends playing cards and having Sunday dinners at the San Marino Club. Most recent, family time was spent at their cottage in Caseville. He embodied strength, perseverance, integrity which he passed on to his family. He never stopped placing others needs before his own. He was a leader among all around him. “ When the kids and I first met Marino....he said you call me Nonno! With that being said, you don't have to be blood to be family. He immediately made us family by the love in his heart and his smiling eyes. He accepted us from day ONE! Wyatt, Libby and I met Marino/Nonno 10 yrs ago. He made us feel welcomed and always wanted us around. I truly will miss him cmg to make sure our house and yard is at tip top shape! Nonno was genuine, generous and one of a kind. Marino/Nonno you will forever be our hearts. ❤️
