“ Mark. I cannot believe you are gone. I remember buying you cigarettes at Venice liquor store when you were just a bus boy at the Brewery because I was a couple years older. I have a lot of memories growing up together in the dumb things we did as well as the hilarious moments that could not be forgotten. You were always the nicest person a friend could have. More than 25 years of memories is just not enough, and I'll miss you forever. I send my deepest condolences to the family. If you ever need anything from me now or in the future, please do not hesitate to reach out.

“ We have known Mark since he and Sarah were infants. We spent so many fun times with him and the whole family. We were always together on holidays and we have so many fun memories. Mark was one of the kindest and sweetest young people I have known. Always quick with a hug and smile. We are heartbroken that he is no longer with us in our world. We will never forget Mark and his gentle nature. Our heartfelt condolences to the family.
