“Mark, was a friend to all. He had three very special lives where he inspired many through his beautiful smile and caring heart. His time in Michigan in both Sterling Heights and Royal Oak, his college life at Michigan State and his after college life in Dallas Texas. I was very blessed to have know Mark for 30 some years. He was my best friend. Just the other day I was going through some photos and came across the postcards that Mark had sent to me when he moved to Dallas. They were images of the Dallas skyline with my name on little pieces of tape all over them and a simple message. "This city has your name all over it" Mark was right and I made the move to Dallas where me and Mark were roommates for many years. My heart is very broken, but the memories we shared keep me going. Everyone should take a snapshot of their life and see if they are living their life they way are friend Mark did. Mark was a friend to all and he will forever be in each of our hearts. For Mark was loved by all and will be forever missed. We have all lost a great friend, but have gained a guardian angel. I love you my dear friend.”

“Mark, you are forever in our hearts and so deeply missed: From your engaging smile that lit up a room, along with your generous spirit, so open to solving problems and helping those around you, through your determination and ease to bring me up to date technologically, intermingled with numerous carefree, fun times we shared together. You never ceased to teach us how to live and fight life's toughest battle imaginable, with such an intense perseverance, faith, hope, and gusto to the end, never giving up, along with your beautiful wife, Sandy, the love of your life, who fought your battle right along with you and for you all the way. From both of you, we have learned the true meaning of love, strength, determination, and commitment. Thank you for these lifelong lessons. We love you forever, Mark! Your Loving Mom”

“Dear Carl, Marilyn and Sandy, we are so sad about Mark's passing. We knew him so well, were so fond of him and so happy for his spirit and accomplishments that it hurts us very much to know of his passing. We grieve for you and for your family and friends and cannot imagine how difficult this loss is for all of you. We pray for Mark and you. With our sincerest condolences and love,”

“Sandy, It is with a sad heart that I heard of Mark's passing. We had worked together on several projects. It seems that God took him home way too soon. I had hopes that his life could have been extended so that you two could have had more time together. As it was though, I know you will cherish the time you had. I was a co-worker with Mark and also the one that came to the house a couple of times to try to help him with the cancer. Both of you are in my prayers but especially you for where he is now is a place of tremendous love and beauty. For us still here, we often carry the pain of loss. May the love of God be with you at this time and lift this burden from your heart and may He surround you with his angels.”

“My sympathy goes to the entire Wagner family. I met Mark years ago in Dallas through his friend Peter--when they lived together. I am so sorry to hear about his passing! I will always remember Mark's as a happy individual and fun to hang out with.”

“My sincere condolences to the Wagner family for the loss of your son, brother, and husband. I met Mark at Michichan State University and we worked together in Sherman, Texas at his first job after school. We shared an apartment there, and also in Plano when we decided we'd spent enough time in a small town and needed to be closer to the action in Dallas. Mark had many friends and was a great inspiration for everyone that knew him. He was also a model of efficiency when it came to moving apartments. Instead of carefully packing things in boxes we packed them ever so carefully in the moving truck, which after half loading looked like a bomb exploded. But in the end only one item broke and it was a bit quicker. Although we did conclude it wasn't the best approach. I mention the above because it's an example of the fun and innovative spirit that Mark brought to everyone he touched. Mark will continue to be an inspiration in my life as I'm sure he will in others.”

“I went to high school with Beth and Mark was the older brother all of her friends were in love with and had to bargain over who was going to be brave enough to ask to the dance. He took it all in stride and was very nice about it. God speed Mark. You and your family are in our prayers.”
