“ *My deepest sympathy to Mary’s family.
I met Mary about a year ago when I visited her to bring her Communion
I was prepared to meet this 101 year old lady and I was pleasantly surprised to find this energetic, bright, sweet and welcoming lady, far from looking 101 years old. We talked and laughed and prayed.
After than I had the privilege to bring her Communion every other week, that was her request. She was very grateful to St. Paul of Tarsus Church for providing her with the joy of receiving the Lord in the Eucharist. In her younger years she had been active in the church where she worshipped with her husband.
She was an inspiration to me and she will be greatly missed.
May the angels welcome you in paradise, my dear friend, may you rest in the peace of the Lord. Until we meet again, Sefora M. Gillies
