“ Mary was such a nice lady. I really enjoyed the time I got to spend with her just talking. The biggest standout to me was how appreciative she was to have Malinda and Vern take her in at this difficult stage of her life. Malinda was so patient and kind to care for her mother like she did. Not everyone can do that kind of personal care with their loved one. I know that Mary was very grateful and appreciative. Rest in peace, Mary

“ my favorite memory of mary ann is actually going on a cruise with her and Ted. This is the cruise that I proposed to Malinda. I knew Mary heard all the stories about me fighting at bars and decided to play a joke. I convinced Malinda to tell her I was in the cruise jail for getting in a fight. Anyways we didn't let it go too far but she was so mad at me she actually punched me, but then laughed really hard. I will miss making her laugh.

“ We were so saddened to hear of Mary’s passing. She was loved by many and always had a smile whenever we saw her, no matter her troubles. We know she will be so missed by everyone who had the pleasure of knowing her. That’s really a testament to what a difference she made in everyone’s life she touched. She is with Ted now and free from all suffering. We send love and prayers for your family.

Love,
Sue and Spice
