“ My sister Mary was a kind, loving, generous and gentle person. She had a big heart, an infectious laugh & smile and loved to have fun. She was always putting others before herself. She loved to host get togethers where she was usually the life of the party and always made sure everyone had a good time. I have many fond memories and pictures of these occasions with her. But my fondest memories of her are some of the many pranks that I played on her. But the one I love the most involves her obsession with vacuuming. I prank called Mary one day pretending to be a traveling vacuum salesman named Mr. Dusty with the Usucuum Vacuum Corporation. Once I placed the call I knew I would have to talk fast. So I placed the call and she answered I said Ms Lipari and she said yes??? I said good afternoon mam my name is Mr Dusty with the Usucuum Vacuum Corporation and I am in your area giving free demonstrations of our latest and greatest model the super sucker 3000 would you be willing to spare a moment of your time for one? She tried to get off the phone but I pressed on. I said Ms Lipari do you like to vacuum? She said as a matter of fact yes I do. I said of course you do Ms Lipari who doesn't am I right? I then asked how many times a day do you think you vacuum your carpeting? She answered two maybe three times a day. I said WOW then boy do we ever have the vacuum for you the super sucker 3000! This baby will not only suck the dirt out of your carpeting but also the padding underneath and even your sub flooring. It's just that powerful! It will cut your vacuuming time down to once or twice a week freeing up more of your time for other things. She hesitated and then I asked do you value your free time Ms Lipari? She answered yes i do. Well then I said the super sucker 3000 is the vacuum for you! So I said what do you say are you up for a free demonstration Ms Lipari? She said well I can't right now because I am leaving the house and getting in my car to run some errands. I said well I am driving down your street right now and can see your house and I don't see you getting in your car. She then answered back how do you know where my house is? After that I lost it and started laughing. She said J is that you? And I said you caught me. She said you jerk I don't know why I always keep falling for your pranks and then started to laugh with that infectious laugh of hers. So as everyone mourns the loss of Mary from this world I firmly believe that heaven has gained a new angel and her name is Mary. She is probably up there right now playing a game of cribbage with our father and both of them are looking down at us and smiling. Rest in Peace Sis.
