“ We are so sorry for your loss. Although we hadn't met Matt, we see what a wonderful father he was in his son and grandson. To see their grief at this time is so sad. We hold them and all of you up to God. May you find peace in His love

“ Dear Pat and Family, Craig and I are saddened by the loss of Matt. What a great guy and loving husband, father and grandfather. When I would see Matt coming from the mail box for my Mom, he would always stop and say HI and tell me all about the grandkids. Doug, he loved having you close to him. I remember dancing with Matt at our wedding. May GOD receive his new angel and wrap you all in his loving arms during this most difficult time.

“ Dear Patricia, Philip, and the entire Pohl Family, I want to express my sincerest sympathy in the passing of my St. Anthony High School classmate. In my mind, Matt will always be remembered as a fun-loving "guy" and a most happy fella. My prayers and thoughts are with you all. May our Lord welcome Matt into his arms.

“ I am very sorry for your loss. When we lose someone we love it is a very hard thing for us to deal with. Did you know that you can find comfort during this troubling time in you life? God gives us that comfort thru His word the Bible. We have the promise that God will swallow up death forever according to Isaiah 25:8. Wouldnt you like to see this happen? How about the grand promise that He will actually resurrect our loved ones back to life!? Not to the life that they lived before they died, but to a life free of crime, disease, old age, etc. How do we know this is possible? The Bible has many examples of people who were resurrected from the dead. One in particular is Lazarus. After being dead for four days, Jesus Christ resurrected him from the dead. John 5:28, 29 and Acts 24:15 helps us to see that a resurrection of our loved ones IS possible. So please take comfort in knowing that God knows your pain and is willing to help you cope with it until you are able to see your loved one again! The book "What Does the Bible Really Teach?" gives us real hope for our loved ones who have died. Chapter 7 of this book answers the questions: How do we know that the resurrection will really happen? How does Jehovah feel about resurrecting the dead? and Who will be resurrected? If you would like to know more and/or a copy of this book please see one of Jehovah's Witnesses in your area.
