“ I had the privilege of knowing Michael for just about two years, and in that time, he left a lasting impact.

He was one of the rare few who was not only incredibly kind but also endlessly willing to lead and step in whenever help was needed — often accomplishing what seemed impossible with quiet determination.

Mike had a gift for lifting the spirits of those around him, whether through a story, a joke, or simply his steady presence. His sense of fairness and integrity showed in all he did, and it was clear he led with both wisdom and heart.

I will always be grateful for the support he offered me, and for the genuine congratulations he extended when I shared the news of my growing family.

It was truly a pleasure and an honor to work alongside him. He will be deeply missed.

“ I was privileged to know Michael for only a few short years. In that time I found myself going to him for words of wisdom, encouragement and humor. Michael spoke of his children daily, the love for his family was proudly worn. He was an incredibly bright light for store 145, that was so desperately needed and cherished. The world around us is forever dimmed with him gone. The first notes I wrote in my book were yours, Mike. Rest now, Boss

“ It was an honor to have known Mike. When I met my husband's immediate family for the first time, I was naturally a little nervous, but Mike acted like I had known him for years. He was so warm and welcoming. I always enjoyed visiting the family and playing board games with him. His love of Monopoly and Risk were unparalleled - I would never take him on head to head in either!

He was such a proud dad. The love for Emma and Dylan was made so known daily. I'll never forget how he planned a whole Mall of America trip and proudly made a whole binder with all of Emma's favorite stores and pointed out where every single Starbucks was. He was so proud to be their dad and always looked forward to making more core memories with them.

Keep the game score sheets going for us up in heaven - we'll join you one day. Thank you for the laughs, the love and the memories!

*I'm sure going to miss our talks. You were my person to vent to. As I was always there for you. You had the biggest heart to help anyone.
When I wasn't sure about a doctor's appointment you'd say I gotcha cousin Tina. Let me know the date and time. When we made a trip to Chicago for Brandon you planned it out. It was a fun trip with you always. Now you've taken a trip by yourself. You will definitely be missed. But, I know in my heart you knew you were loved by many ppl.
I'll miss your calls in Mrs Doubtfire voice. Love you.*

“ Mike was one of those people who always had a smile on his face, I have to say the time he was my direct boss at Meijer was one of the best. He always had patience to teach and help me grow. His kids are in my heart, he talked about them often. Gone too soon 💜

“ God has called our wonderful nephew home far too soon. Michael was a fantastic father who loved and protected his children with all his heart. Family was incredibly important to him and at a drop of a hat he would be there for any of us. He loved family vacations and was an awesome cook especially when it came to smoking meats. He had an impeccable work ethic, we loved talking about the value of hard work and not calling in. Michael was very kind, he knew what interested those he was conversing with and made sure to discuss those topics. Michael also loved history, reading and learning all he could; he was a true American Patriot loving the red, white and blue!

You are already missed. Thanks for all the great times, the conversations, the laughter, the love, the hugs, the help (to everyone), and especially for enjoying “Pa-pa, pa-pa-pa Pa-pa, pa-pa-pa Pa-pa, pa-pa-pa, pa-pa, pa-pa.....” as much as Emma does. Heaven has a new angel, you had to have been welcomed with open arms.

“ Michael was also a WONDERFUL nephew and cousin. He was a true family man and was always there at a drop of a hat for his family and others. He left this earth too early, and we are going to miss him tremendously. Family events will not be the same without him, his stories, and his laugh. I will always treasure our memories - black car, softball games, MC Hammer. Love you!

“ This is heartbreaking, I watched Mr. Leask dedicate everything for his children and everyone in his life since Emma and I became friends. I have always thought so highly of him and the way he cares for his family. He truly showed us all what a devoted father and man should look like in anyone’s life. ❤️
