“ I haven't seen you and Cheryl since our AIM days but every day, Mike would make a word in our words with friends game. I looked forward to it. He was quite the challenge. Now I don't even have much interest in the game. Sure do miss you, Mike!

“ My first thought occurring to me & memory of you Mike from childhood & teens in our home through adults at family gatherings as my brother Joe’s brother in law is such:
Your smiling face and identifiable laughter even from another room ; most often as result of you and my bro Joe’s exchange of wit 😊
This has touched my heart deeply and want to thank you for being such an incredible life long friend to my brother!!!
We are all very lucky to have you as part our life’s journey!
May Gods grace shine upon your soul & grant you rest, peace, & continued joy ❤️

“ To Mike, the guy who introduced me to both Mad Magazine and Games Magazine, along with never-ending funny ways to answer the phone. Mike, you always had time to share a meal and for a game of Pinochle. I was blessed to have you for a brother-in-law. I fondly remember the last time we visited, and I was happy to get you some coffee and lottery tickets. Mike, you will be sorely missed. May you Rest In Peace! Love, Tammy

“ From best friend since age 5 to brother-in-law, Mike was a big part of my life. We went to school together from kindergarten through high school. We played on the same little league baseball team and won a championship. We were on the same H.S. basketball team. We were on the same bowling team, which consisted of three Mike Moskals and me. We played a lot of golf together. We always compared our solutions to the NY Times Sunday crossword puzzle. We went to game 5 of the 1968 world series together. We waited in line all night at Tiger stadium to get tickets to the 1971 all-star game. Without him there would be no Joe & Mickey. He always was there to help and support me whenever I needed it. We shared innumerable memories together. He was one of the smartest people I ever met. He and his sense of humor will be sorely missed.

“ We had just dug up the trees in our backyard, Mike, when you needed some soil for your own yard. It was too heavy to carry to your house so you took our extra dirt, put it in a wheelbarrow, put Cheryl in your open trunk, and drove home with Cheryl holding the wheelbarrow handles and pulling the wheelbarrow behind your car. A very “Mike” solution!

We will miss you, Mike. You are forever in our hearts.

“ One of the most influential people in my life!! A person who was responsible for fixing me up on a blind date in 1971. October 4, 1971. A Santana concert at the old Olympia Stadium. A date that changed my life forever.

I'm still very happily married to that sweet, beautiful girl.

I can't begin to imagine my life without Christie or my five boys along with their significant others who have blessed us with fourteen wonderful grandchildren.

Mike, I am indebted to you forever!

Rest in peace my dear friend.
