“ Wow. What can I possibly write that would do justice to this situation?
I have known Uncle Mike my entire life. In fact, my dad has known him for all of his life, too.
It is strange to think about gatherings, holidays,...family...without him.
I will forever keep in my heart Uncle Mike's warm smile, kind voice, and pre-Atari video Pong in the basement in the 1980s.with Stacey :-)
Rest easy, Uncle Mike; you were loved.

“ Standing tall at 6’6”, Mr Savage was a very sweet and gentle man. He always treated me well, with respect and kindness. He is straight as an arrow, and has the integrity that never waiver. I love being around him and I love how he made me laugh with his jokes. He treated me so well when I visited Detroit. I will miss him greatly. Rest in peace Mr Savage. 🙏🙏🙏❤️

“ I don't know where to begin to find the words to express our sympathy. We have so many fond memories of spending time with both you and Mike. So many New Year's Eves we spent together. However, I think the most memorable times we ever had was when our gang would all go cross country skiing up in Port Austin. We would be laughing all you both will be in our thoughts and prayers. Take care, Jim and Pam Kovacik

“ No words can express our sincere loss of dear Mike. We shared over 50 years of friendship and good times. If Barnum Drive could talk there would be fantastic stories of the best parties around. Our friendship never ended and we feel like Mike & Elaine our part of our family. We'll never forget you Mickey. Love ya, Kathie & Art Anderson.
