“Praying for your family for more strength and guidance now and always.
Mike was always the consummate gentleman. Even as a kid: neighbor, babysitting Michael & Michelle, as a teenager, and adult Mike treated me with respect and caring. I knew this was just part of his legacy and how he treated everyone. Thank you for being you and passing these traits on to your children and to all those who knew you. Always in our hearts.”

“So sorry to hear about Mike's passing. Mike was a long client of Brady Insurance. Just before his business insurance renewed each year we would meet at his favorite breakfast place, The Pantry, in Sterling Heights. We would take care of the business matter in just a few minutes then we had some time to eat our omelets and enjoy each other's company. I would have coffee but he would pass saying that he had already had his coffee when he got to the office at 5:30 that morning. He would often receive calls during breakfast which he handled calmly and with a smile. I always put Mike's insurance needs at the top of my list. When Mike called his matter got handled first thing. We had a mutual respect for each other. I very much appreciated his words of wisdom over the years that he would share with me. He had a very big heart and wasn't afraid to show it. Mike will be remembered fondly and missed very much. Respectfully, Kirstin Steinhauer (Insurance Agent Brady Insurance)”
