“ I have so many memories of Michelle. Some funny, some happy, and some downright outrageous. From her well-known aversion to mornings to her absolute love for Dunkin' Donuts coffee. From her bold, outgoing personality and fearless ability to strike up a conversation with anyone, to her competitive streak in family card games. Michelle was always full of energy and always herself.

She was a presence. One you felt, heard, and sometimes had to keep up with. And she will be missed by all who knew her.

“ Michelle I can't imagine not talking to you everyday. I will miss playing rummy and memories at the cabin. Life won't be the same.

Michelle was a good friend of mine from AAA Franklin. I will truly miss her. We would chat back and forth about our grandchildren. She was so looking forward to being back in Michigan to spend time with them and family. I am so very sorry for your loss. My sincere condolences!
