“ What a sweet and kind man. After his outdoor chores were done - he'd sit on the porch and enjoy a beer. Our side porches faced each other so we would chat. Had I known sooner - I would have attended the funeral. Good bye Milton and Rose. Two wonderful people.

“ My dear old Dad is gone and has left a hole in my heart. Having had my Dad for such a long time has given me so many memories that others are not always afforded. I am so very grateful for that. Dad, I will miss our outings, our drives, our chats, our card games and sitting on your porch with you.....that has been a tradition since I was a little girl. You were a great Dad, a role model for hard work and clean living, a man who loved and appreciated even the little things in life.....especially the little things in life. I don't know how we are supposed to do this without you but I rest a little easier knowing you are back with Mom, whom you never stopped loving and missing. Look down on us, Pops, and be proud of what you accomplished in your nearly 100 years of a great life. I love you so very much, Dad. See you later alligator.

“ My Uncle Milton. Always called me Freddie and greeted me with that big, generous smile that I'll always remember. When first meeting my relatives, my wife Kathy identified him by that smile. Always felt comfortable in his presence. My condolences to my cousins and other family members. R.I.P.

“ I will always remember being at Uncle Milton's house visiting with his family, also at Koenigbauer family gatherings. Uncle Milton and Aunte Rose were such a handsome/beautiful couple, I enjoyed them and the entire family. I will be driving by their old house one more time just to remember everyone once more. Good bye Uncle Milton.....8n4zy

“ My Pop, I will miss seeing you and no words can express how much. I learned a great deal from Dad including: the value of hard work and dedication to your family. Dad was very grateful for any help he received. He could concentrate on a game of cards to the last days of his life like no other. Dad loved nature and was in awe of its beauty. Your grateful son Paul Milton Bass

“ I am going to miss visiting Milt. He was such a nice man with a wonderful outlook and attitude. When I see a garden of flowers I think of Milt and how much he enjoyed the beautiful colors of the blossoms. I'm sure he is enjoying the flowers in heaven! Nancy Waselowich

“ Kathy, Gayle, Marilyn and families - so saddened by the news of your Dad's passing - though it's been quite a while since I saw him or Mom I feel like I was right there while you shared the stories and visits with him - what a sweet soul! I can just picture what Rose has to say now that he had joined her ! Live and prayers to you all !
