“Brianna - I was so sad to hear the news but really feel Nic is now finally free of pain and in a better place. With all the tough times you have endured over the last few years I know you also have some very fond memories of your wonderful husband and father of your children. Stay strong - Nic will be watching over you all.

“I met Nic many years ago when we worked at St. Joe's. We were instant friends. He was the most caring, reliable, kind hearted friend anyone could ask for, he was always there for me when I needed him (and that was a lot!). He stole a place in my heart back then and will remain there forever. I will never forget you Nic, this you already know. Love you and miss you bunches.
