“ So many fond memories of Uncle Nick...holiday get-together's and Sundays at grandma's! My thoughts and prayers are with the entire family and wishing you moments of peace and comfort!

“ It's very common for young children to look forward to Friday, during the school year. Generally this is because there is no school on the weekend. I was a typical teenager, in that regard. I had even a better reason though. I fondly remember my Sunday trips with my dear brother, Nick, and his wife, Virginia. We frequently went to visit Virginia's mother, Mrs Kalita, when she lived on Cass Lake in Avon Township.

Nick & Virginia had many nieces & nephews, all about the same age as me. These were such fun times! Must admit that all the Polish food was pretty darn good also!! To this day, it remains my favorite. These memories are simply a small taste of all the good times shared with Nick. Rest easy, dear brother, until we meet again. You are away for now, but will never be forgotten. Love you much.. Linda
