“ Patrick, even though we never meet, your friendship on Facebook was a true blessing. You were such a beautiful person with smarts, empathy for others and I absolutely loved your wit. I'm going to miss our middle of the night chats. There will always be a special spot in my heart for you and you will never be forgotten.

“ Patrick had a beautiful heart and was a loving young man. God took him home sooner than what we all wanted but he is in no more pain. To be selfish and want him still here is natural. To deal with ALS he lived and dealt one should not. Patrick loved racing, loved cars and he loved historical places as well as the history. His smile was warmth and contagious. Gone but not forgotten. A hard worker he always was. He believed in what was right and would take up for you if needed. Incredible, outstanding, hardworking young man who fought hard with this disease of ALS and still managed to try and keep smiling and staying positive. I will never forget you and may you be forever in the hearts of all who knew you and love you.

“ I Rember Patrick when he was about 2 years old and eating dinner. We had broccoli and he loved it. He said; " Aunt Laurie can I have some more of those trees." We all laughed. Bless his heart ALS is a cruel disease but Patrick fought it and never let it alter his beautiful smile and happy soul. I will miss you my Dear Nephew may and you rest in eternal peace. I will always remember you in my heart.
