““Our prayers and love to you Becky, Gavin and Sam. And special prayers to Paul. One of the funniest, most talented men I ever met. He was a blessed man to have you and the boys, Becky. But he made that blessing happen and is with God now, in peace and everlasting love. You should be so very proud of your courage and compassion. Gavin and Sam will forever prosper. My heart breaks for you, sweet, precious Becky. My arms are wide open for you, as well as my home and heart if you need us, please come.””

““To the family of Paul Hughs, Chef Paul was an absolutely awesome person and chef. I met him while working in Detroit at Cobo Hall. From the moment we met, I recognized his extraordinary culinary talents. I am so thankful to God that I had the chance to showcase his talents at the Int'l Auto Show in Detroit and the NAACP dinner. I will miss him dearly. I will continue to pray for the family, and thank you all for sharing his greatness and warm spirit with all of us. Heaven has an awesome chef.””

“Becky, Sam, Gavin and family, So, so sorry for your loss. Paul was loved by so many people and made a positive difference in so many lives. Not too long ago Paul contacted me to thank me for "the good old days of high school" and parties at my condo. After so many lost years of contact with Paul, it was such a kind deed from this young man. Blessings to all."

“We are all sad at Paul's passing on. But what a great lesson Paul gave to all of us to keep going with such strength and courage, with the support of Becky, Sam, Gavin and the whole family-the Marshalls and the Hughes. I am proud of all of you. I can just imagine the grand reunion of Paul with his loved grandparents- Paul and Helen, Ray and Olive. We know Paul, you will still be with us in spirit as we journey on, knowing some day we will again see you face to face.
Love, Aunt Margaret Hughes Detroit, Mi. Dec. 16, 2014"
