“ Paul set a high bar for us all both personally and professionally. Even during our last days working together before I moved on from PolyFlex Paul was still being a friend and mentor. He exemplified character and grace. Even though we feel loss today we will be blessed tomorrow by his memory. God bless to his family and friends. "Hey while you are up there, see if you can get us a little help this season"GO BLUE!Rest Well.Respectfully,"

“ Paul, Thank you for your leadership, and your service. Very few people make a discernible difference in this life. In the short time I worked with you, I saw your patience, wisdom, compassion and persistence result in profound shifts in thinking with people who worked with you."

“Even though we are family, we only met Paul once several years ago. Reading this guest book makes us realize what we missed in not knowing him better. We can at least look forward to seeing him again in eternal life. Our condolences to Becky and all of the family who had the honor to appreciate him.”

“Broken-hearted at the passing of Paul. I am grateful to have called him a friend. It is rare to have a friend who cared enough to tell you the truth (whether you wanted to hear it or not) and I needed that many times. I loved that we could have the most heated debates and still end as friends. He told the truth in love and showed us all grace. He was blessed to have Becky as his wife and partner in life. Becky, you are a strong, compassionate, and loyal woman. He will truly be missed.”

“I am really going to miss you and will never forget you, the memories of the times we had from traveling with you or going to sporting events, I can't put into words how I feel about those times together. You have touched so many people in every place you have been. I will miss you Paul”

“Uncle Paul was more than a Uncle, he was a brother, mentor, and a friend. Paul was dealt a bad hand at a young age and had to test his will. He beat Hoskins and went on to show all of us that it would not deter him from leading a full life. My heart is heavy and will forever fell unfulfilled. I know that I was privileged to have know Paul, he showed all of us that hard work and dedication pays off, he had a take charge presence in work, social gatherings, and at home. Paul left a lasting impression when you meet him, always happy and positive, never knew anyone who could say anything bad about Paul. He had a distinctive laugh, he used it a lot. We lost a truly great man, had a heart of a Wolverine. Paul will forever remain in my heart, to many memories to list and it's to really put into words what a dedicated man Paul was to doing the best at whatever it was that he was accomplishing, a true leader and the best, a champion of the west. Thank you for everything and may you rest in peace, I will love him forever”

“Paul was the kind of guy that didn't need a special title to be part of the family, no matter if he was an uncle, brother, or friend, because he was one and the same to all of us. I knew him my whole life and still wish that I knew him more. He was kind, funny, and most of all, devoted to his beliefs, whether it be in God or that the Wolverines would win the Nation Championship. He will be dearly remembered.”

“Dear Becky,
Aarthi and I are extremely saddened by the loss of a truly nice person and friend in Paul! Paul's cheerful disposition, positive attitude, and belief in people will always be remembered. Please stay strong and let us know how we may help you in these difficult times. We still remember the Michigan Vs Oregon game we had the pleasure of attending with Paul and you...Paul showed that Michigan had one true supporter, irrespective of the results. Please remember we are with you and you can count on us.
Love,
Vikram and Aarthi Gopal”

“Becky,
The words I write cannot express how sad we feel. Losing a very close friend, a boss, and most of all a wonderful person. Paul gave me a chance when I was offered a job at Stampings and taught me many things. The tailgate parties will never be the same. I will miss his laugh but most of all I will miss my dear friend! What a great man and he will be missed forever.”

“Words will not ever be enough to express how much Paul will be missed. We will miss his unforgettable laughter that warms the heart, his big heart that is larger than life, his wisdom that gave us the best advice, his honesty, his passion and confidence to do great things in life, his mentoring and helping of others to be great. His friendship had touched everyone with unforgettable happy memories. Paul has done his job on earth, taught us goodness and compassion, and the true meaning of friendship, God wants him in heaven. God bless you Paul, Rest in Peace my Good Friend.
Dear Becky and Paul's family,
We are deeply sorry about your loss, our thoughts and prayers are with you. May God bless you and give you the strength and comfort.
Sincerely,
Mario, Sherrie, Daniel & Julian Haddad
