“ Randy was a delightfull man. We enjoyed spending time with Randy and Cheryl. I remember telling Randy that I wish my Kenny would look at me the way he looked at Cheryl. He was so full of life and laughter. We has so much fun with Him and Cheryl at the RCIA, we shared many tears, laughter, and joyfull memories. Rest in peace our dear friend, your home with our lord.

“ Our condolences to Randy's family. My sister Cheryl, my brother and I had an Uncle , Al Mickelson who wrote a poem that says exactly what we're feeling right now... Why is it that we always wait until we find it is too late to do the kindly things we could , to say the kindly things we should. It seems to be a human trait to wait until it is too late. We lost touch but we will miss you! Karen and Tim Hunke and Cheryl Wells
