“ Richard, You were the light in my darkness. You were my happiness when I was sad. You were my strength when I was weak. You were my reason for getting up in the morning. You will never be gone, you will forever live in my heart. I'll love you forever, Deanna

“ To my wonderful grandpa/godfather~ I will never forget all of the wonderful things we did together! All of the walks we took to get ice cream, and always stopping to look at the cement statues, where I wanted the great big St. Bernard, but settled for the smaller cat, since you were the one that had to carry it the 4 blocks home (which I still have to this day), and all of the car rides we would go on and would listen to my Alvin and the Chip monks tape, over and over again because it was my favorite! All of our trips we took to New York, and Florida, especially the one to Disney World for my 10th birthday, were Dannie got car sick on the way there, and I turned Blue from my new blue outfit and going on all of the water rides! The trips to the mall to do some shopping, but you would always walk away when we would go into the undergarment department because you were to embarrassed. The summers I got to spend hanging out at Book Craft drinking cherry 7-UP and so on Now I get to look forward to sharing all of my wonderful memories I have of you, with Abby! She will know just how wonderful her Bepa was! I want to Thank You, for being such a WONDERFUL grandpa to all of us kids, a WONDERFUL Dad to my dad, Aunt Kim, and Uncle Corey, and last but not least the most WONDERFUL second half to my grandma, thank you for treating her so wonderful, and loving her so much, just as her and the rest of us love you! May you rest in peace, as you will always be in my heart! Love Always, Amber

“ To all of Richard's loved ones. When we "googled" the words love and compassion, The web site said "see the loved ones of Richard Hebel", because they are the best examples of love and compassion available.
