“ I was sent this information from a Rauchut friend on Facebook. I am one of many Philadelphia Rauchut's. The name spelling changes from place to place. I am very sorry for your loss. My Dad, Norbert Rauchut, was born in 1930. He passed away in 1997. His father was Alexander Rauchut. So, likely distant cousins. Please be well. Your family can come together soon. Blessed Be.

“ My family and I are going to miss you very much Uncle Rich. I will forever hold on to all the memories of us playing dominoes at my grandparents and you asking me how my music was doing along with my firefighting career. You and aunt Mary hold a very special place in my heart. So happy you are home with her now and pain free. Love you forever Uncle Rich❤️

“ Karen, Linda, & Mark,
Its been a very long road for all of you the past few years, but remember your dad is finally so HAPPY, he is back with the love of his life. I can hear Aunt Mary saying "Richard" right now! We have so many family memories growing up together on Sparling/Caldwell, I will cherish all of them. My favorite is the video we have of your father wearing a plastic Santa mask and sneaking into our house pretending to be Santa.
Knowing both your parents are in heaven together now, is some comfort to get you through this difficult time.

Prayers and hugs to the family. Always with a smile. My cousins remember him from his days at the GM building. How proud he was to walk you down the aisle at St. Anastasia Linda for your wedding to Dan. Be well. Love, Penny

Our prayers go out to Richard's family I grew up with Richard and lived on Caldwell, went to school, and hung out with Richard for those many years. I watched Richard (on drums) and Stan Beltowski (on accordion) play many weddings. He played good drums. My wife Joan knew Richard when he was only called Luigi during the time when he also hung out with Mike Rembelski (her brother) We will miss both Luigi and Mary God bless and keep them Love Joseph and Joan Bieda
