

Richard G. Vince

September 1, 1934 - December 28, 2024

Richard G. Vince, affectionately known for his warm "Hey Babe," passed away peacefully on December 28, 2024, at the age of 90. A devoted family man, Richard was the beloved husband of the late Pauline (Deeby), his heart and soul, and the cherished father of Ann Marie (Tony) Russo, Carmella (Timothy) McKay, Richard (Barry), Anthony (Cynthia), Michael, and Joseph. He was a proud grandfather to Thomas, Jessica, Victoria, Ross, Kayla, and Marissa, and a loving great-grandfather to Luna, Kennedy, Liberty, and Antonio. Beloved brother of Dennis (Cathy) Vince and the late Louis (JoAnn) Vince. His family was his pride and joy, and his love for them knew no bounds.

Richard lived a life full of adventure and joy. He cherished his time in Lexington, a place filled with beautiful memories and peaceful moments. A golf enthusiast and avid gambler, he never shied away from the thrill of the tables. So much so that Las Vegas was his and Pauline's destination for the dream home they built together.

Richard always enjoyed a good Bacardi and Coke while spending time with his family. Whether it was around the table sharing stories, on the golf course, or just relaxing at the cottage, he brought joy and warmth to every moment. Above all, Richard loved his family first and foremost.

As we say goodbye, we'll always remember his words, filled with love and reassurance: "You know that way too, babe."
