“ We are all so very sorry of the loss of Robert. He has touched us all in so many ways in such a short time. The following quote is brought to mind as I sit here today thinking of all great times we had together. God Bless you all. Nothing you love is lost. Not really. Things, people they always go away sooner or later. You can't hold them anymore than you can hold moonlight. But if they've touched you, if they're inside you, then they're still yours. The only things you ever really have are the ones you hold inside your heart. Bruce Coville

“ It was with great sadness we learned of Robert's passing. We will fondly remember the vacations at the beach with chef, Terry and Lindsey (where Tina had the courage of preparing a meal or two for chef), charming cooking classes at the Annapolis Yacht Club, wonderful meals and even an occasional after-dinner sip of his favorite beverage in his upstairs office at the club. We will miss his smile and his love of laughter -- Chef Robert brightened every day we were with him. May God's light shine upon him in heaven.

“ Rob and I met just over 28 years ago in Baltimore. Both young chefs we came together to take control of a new hotel. Although we only worked together for a few weeks we formed a lasting friendship on many levels. Over the years it didn't matter where we were in the country we always found time to meet for a weekend or two and share our love of food, wine, boating and most recently scuba diving. We always found time to talk (mostly him :)) at least once a week and keep each other up to date and our lives close. Rob you are truly my best friend and Barb and I will be always grateful to have been a part of your life.

“ I remember the day Robert passed away I was coming home and seen the Macomb County Medical Examiner in Robert's driveway. I knew what that meant and was totally shocked. All the conversations my wife and I ever had with Robert we knew he was a gentle kind man. Our deepest sympathy his daughter Lindsey, Terry and the rest of his family and friends. Rest in peace Chef Robert you will be missed.

“ When I met Chef Robert Carney for the first time I immediately knew he was a talented man. He had a natural creative flair and passion for food and ambiance. His ability not only to manage but to insist on excellence transitioned the Annapolis Yacht Club into a true fine dining experience. Chef Robert was down to earth and a pleasure to work with. His sense of humor, laughter and tell it like it is manner, made him one of a kind. I remember the smile and the light in his eye when he spoke of his daughter. We had many conversations about food and wine. He always had a good story. Chef Robert will be missed. I am saddened to hear the news of his passing. He truly lived life to the fullest. My thoughts and prayers to the family. Peace Chef.

“ I am deeply saddened to hear of Robert's passing but I know he will live on in our fondest memories. I was privileged to get to know Robert while working at AYC. He was a kind, generous man and we shared many laughs together. I enjoyed talking about food and wine with Robert. He made some of the best meals I ever had. I know he will be missed by all and my thoughts and prayers are with those who were closest to him.

“ Chef. There are no words to express how sad we are and how very much we will miss you. Your culinary talents go without saying but the entertaining conversations we enjoyed with you about wine, boating and comparing notes about skiing, vacations and future endeavors...your friendship is what we will truly miss. To Rob's family, please know that he was loved and respected and the GPYC would not have been the same without him. His memory will live on and on!
