“ Just know that he is in a better place than you could imagine, free of pain, free of worry, and full of joy. Now your job is the hard one remembering him and the good times, the not so good times and the fun times. God Bless and put it in GOD\'s hands, he will make a way.

“ To consider that after the death of the body the spirit perishes, is like imagining that a bird in a cage will be destroyed if the cage is broken, though the bird has nothing to fear from the destruction of the cage. Our body is like the cage, and the spirit is like the bird. We see that without the cage this bird flies in the world of sleep; therefore if the cage becomes broken, the bird will continue and exist: its feelings will be even more powerful, its perceptions greater, and its happiness increased. In truth,... for the thankful birds there is no paradise greater than freedom from the cage. (Abdu\'I-Baha, Baha\'i World Faith - Abdu\'I-Baha Section, p. 326)
