“ Dear Lorraine and family. Atho we have lived miles apart these past 50 or so years, I still remember our years as children with a smile. I am so grateful for the opportunity to spend some time with you an Bob last year...we had a wonderful time and such fun chatching up on the years. I'm sure you will be lost without him but rest assured, he's watching out for you and will never leave you really alone.

“ Dear Lorraine and Family, Richard and Carol, I want to express my deepest sorrow for your loss. I grew up across the street from the family and we were always family, not just neighbors. May the Lord Bless Robert and the entire family at this time. We send our Love and Prayers for Robert and your FAMILY. Paul Yandura
