“Bob was my closest cousin, being only a year older than me. I remember mostly his interest in star gazing and the times we spent out in the back yard winter and summer looking in the sky. We traveled together, attended sports events and such as that until I fled Detroit for warmer climes in 1960. Sad to see you go cuz. Ron Conway”

“I did not know Bob well, but I care deeply about my good friend, Jane, and her loving children, Trish, Karen and Tim. My heart is heavy for all of you but I know that the Lord will lift us all up with memories to share and the love you have all shared over the years. Jane, if there is anything I can do, please do not hesitate to let me know. In the meantime, I lift up prayers for all of you and pray that God will see you through your grief. Much love and huge hugs, Sharon”
