“My thoughts and prayers are with your entire family at this time. I will always remember Roy's friendliness and generosity of his time towards my youngest son and myself. To sit and chat with him by the bay in Traverse City was something we looked forward to each summer. He always had wonderful stories to tell. Rest in peace, Roy.”

“Rocco, we have known each other for a very long time. In fact since 1958 when I came from Italy. We will miss you at our cousins luncheon that we have once a year. You were always so cheerful and always had a story to tell. You will be missed but never forgotten. Love you!”

“No matter where he goes, you will always be your Daddy's little star. He will watch over you from above. - Author Unkown We are truly sorry for your loss and we can't imagine the pain that you all are feeling. Please know that we are here if you need anything. Sorry that we were unable to be there for the funeral, but we will be there with you in thoughts and spirit. Praying for peace of mind and memories of love to fill your heart. Love,
Mike, Crystal, and Brennon”
