“ So sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. Benvenuti, my friend Roger's father. I always remember him as friendly, curious and very energetic. I tended to be an early riser, and showed up at Roger's house too early one Saturday, which gave me the opportunity to hung out with Mr. Benvenuti while waiting for Roger to wake up. By the time I got there, he had already changed the oil, rotated the tires, adjusted the brakes and replaced the shocks on Roger's car! I am also very thankful for Mr. Benvenuti for selling me 2 reliable and very cool classic Chrysler vehicles and for providing valuable advice on their maintenance, not to mention the occasional spare part. It saddens me to hear of his passing, because the world surely needs more people like him.

“ Although it's been more than 30 years since I've seen Roger, I still remember him as a real gentelman, a fun loving person.
