“Eulogy of Ronald James Bousson A devout catholic, A Brother, A father, A friend, A husband, an Uncle, and a grand father But most of all he was our daddy, always there for us for everything. Through the years as our family grew, he put us all through private High School and college. Always there whether we knew it or not, whenever we needed him. Continuously working forever it seemed to make sure we had a better life than him, isn't that the hope and dream of every father? 3 beautiful Girls, and finally a son. Mary, Catherine, Theresa, and I were more blessed than one might care to admit. Our Dad, or sometimes as we referred to him as RJB All around MR Fix~it, A golfer, card shark, golfer, bowler, volunteer, National Cherry Pit Spit Champion, a companion The challenges our father over came, the pride he showed and the unconditional love he gave so freely forged our family into what we are today. His commitment and dedication to his family was never surpassed except by his love. As a Fathers Son. once you realize, how alike you have become fighting and denial of the similarities, I know how important it is to PUT THINGS AWAY WHERE THEY BELONG, I was the cause of many a misplaced items or tools this phrase echoes forever in my head. He was an Army MP veteran, for which he never spoke of, even though a daughter and son in law would follow in his footsteps A Detroit City Employee, that helped get water to the masses, who knows the millions of people he touched without them knowing it. A back yard gardener, who's harvest helped our family get through the winter and lean times. A dad that made time for the smallest of events, piano lessons, Drill team, soft ball, swim meets, powder puff, Football and Lacrosse games. Teaching us to Ice Skate, Ride bikes, and CAMPA driver for the field trips, dance chaperone, Volunteer, dads club, and Bingo nights, and Boy scout camp. He was always there just wanting to help out where ever he could. My Dad Ron was UNIQUE, Especia”

“I have many memories of Ron. We have been friends since we were young lad's. We did a lot of things together, working on cars, his was the first motor bike I ever rode, he even helped me dig out my Dad's basement here at the lake. I was a pallbearer for his little brother's funeral, best man at his wedding, God father to Theresa. I am sorry that I could not be there to see my ole friend off. You are in my prayers. Al”

“Dear Ron, you became part of our family so many years ago, when you married Christine. I remember being in the wedding party, as if it were yesterday. Your family will miss you terribly-they were the constant focus of your life. Your dedication to being a great Husband, Dad, Granddad and Uncle-and a good provider were foremost. You knew how to have fun and yet to be a person of deep spirituality. "Well done, good and faithful servant!" Love and prayers to your beautiful family.”

“Yesterday, I lost my Father, My Daddy, My Freind, and My Mentor. I am who I am because of the Great Man he was. I miss him already, but I know how hard he struggled the last few weeks and days. He is now pain free, and in a better place with Many who have passed before him(especially Mom-Christine). He Loved Smilie faces, Mary Janes, maple nugats, and RessesPBcups. He Loved to Fly Kites and play any card game. He was the best Father and Mentor for living a good, catholic life, with a marvelous work ethic. I Thank God for giving me such a Great Father. He will be in my memmories and heart forever! Rest Peacefully DAD, LOVE AND HUGS-your daughter-Catherine”
