“ I have known Mr. Hess my whole life. We went to Charity Lutheran Church together, his wife was my Sunday school teacher, and his daughters were my dear friends in the youth group. He was the kindest man, always, always smiling. His warmth and kindness will forever be a fond memory for me. May God hold him in the palm of His hand.

Ron and Bev were dear friends. Are daughters were in the youth group at Charity and high school together. Always nice to see them. And Ron's jokes.
