

Ronald James Maricco

June 30, 1942 - July 21, 2023

MARICCO, Ronald J. "Ron"., 81, joined the choirs in heaven in the early morning hours of Friday, July 21, 2023, not long after the karaoke bars closed. He immediately began directing chords and perfecting the angels' harmony. Ron didn't hesitate to offer advice to the new guy, Tony Bennett (legendary crooner), who joined Ron in heaven on the same day.

Ron is survived by his three sons (Brian, Michael, and Anthony) and their significant others (Jenn, Luisa, & Molly, respectively). He also leaves behind three grandchildren (Antonio, Angelo, and Oliver), one surviving brother, Robert Maricco (and his wife, Delphine, and their daughter, Liz), and many friends. Ron is predeceased by his brother Raymond and his parents, Cassie and Sam.

Ron is remembered by all as a good father and grandpa, overall good man (kind and generous with his time and spirit), man of God, picky eater, avid Judge Judy viewer, Detroit Lions lover/hater, and above all else, a karaoke fanatic. Ron will be missed dearly; his memory and impact lives on. In lieu of flowers, we ask that you sing your favorite song in Ron's memory.
