“It was the day I was afraid of. My deepest condolences to the whole family, especially to you Lisa. I never forgot the day we talked in the car once you picked me up from class, we had talked about losing parents one day. How would we cope with it, your teardrops had appeared already before we ended our words. You took very good take care of her for years, made her happy every single day and now she is in heaven with Michael and Pete, I deeply believe. We will keep her warm in our hearts and minds as her family in Istanbul forever, her beautiful generous soul will be with us to remind us how much she inspired us with great joy, a big smile on her face and best dishes in the world. Love you so very much..”

“Lisa, know with certainty that your Mom has already spread the word in Heaven about how wonderfully she was cared for and loved by you. Also know that she will be with you in spirit until the day when you and your family will be together again. BTW....I have word on good authority that Jesus loves plants and flowers (gardening) as well.”

““Lisa....Our deepest condolences to you and family...Take great comfort in knowing you did everything and beyond to take care of you're beautiful mother...Lots of wonderful childhood memories over the Spagnolo's home, especially the wonderful homemade chicken noodle soup we would eat for lunch when we came home from school, to the family bocci ball matche's on the front lawn...Mrs Spagnuolo, I thought of you as a second mother as well, I will always love you and will always love you're daughter who is one of the strongest individuals I have ever met in my life, her love for you is unmeasureable and unfailing. Thank you for the wonderful memories. RIP Dear Rosie.””

““Dear Lisa, my thoughts and prayers are with you. The care you gave your mother was such a beautiful expression of pure love. I know your mother is at peace. I am holding you in prayer and asking the angels to surround you, may you experience the peace and comfort that is above human understanding. God's blessing as you go through this experience of letting go.””

“Dearest Lisa and members of Rose's family, My thoughts and prayers are with you. Lisa, your Mother was a wonderful Lady who raised an amazing daughter. The love you had shown to your Mom was the same love she had taught and shown you. Rose is now whole in mind, body, and spirit and she is in Heaven with the Holy Trinity and Our Blessed Mother Mary. Love, Vickie Tribble”

“I have so many wonderful memories of Mrs. Spagnuolo. I met her for the first time as a high school senior in Tampa. I still remember the first time we met in the living room of the family's new home. She was warm, friendly and smiling. We shared countless meals together mixed with a lot of laughter. She was like another Mother to me. I will miss you but know that you are in heaven with your family and friends. Prayers for strength and peace to Lisa and Jay.”
