“ My deepest sympathy to the Wioskowski family at this time of sorrow.
I had the privilege to meet Rose last year when I brought her Communion during her illness. She was an amazing beautiful lady and her faith in the Eucharist and the love for her children was an inspiration to me. We spent time in prayer and I cherish those sacred moments.
May the Angels welcome you in paradise, my dear friend. May you rest in the peace of the Lord.

“ My heart goes out to Wendy, Richie, Jason, and Jeff- I loved my "Aunt" Rose. She was a beautiful person. She and I had many conversations while I was growing up because I lived across the street.
Our families spent a lot of time together, camping, hanging out, etc. I will miss her.
May you all find God's peace in the days ahead. Remember the good times, and let joy fill your heart with those memories. In the mean time, may you sense God's comfort in the grieving time.
Love you all!
