“ *"Dear Phil, Veronica and Rocky, I have great memories of your father up north with my father and Art. He was all ways cool with me and I loved driving up there and just B.S.'n with him. I always would ask my dad about him and tell him to say hello for me. After my father your dad and your Uncle Art were two of the greatest men I knew.
Love, Michael Simonutti"*

“ "Dear Phil, Veronica and Rocky, I will never forget your Father! I can relate to the part of his obituary which says: Roy made everyone he met feel special when visiting him at his Harsens Island paradise, most never wanted to leave. My Father was a friend of Roy's for many years. I have many fond memories of visiting Roy on Harsens Island with my Father when I was young and I did not want to leave either!"

“Our condolences to Mr. Bianchini's family. My children and I were lucky to spend a summer day at his home on Harsens Island along with his daughter, Veronica and her family about thirteen years ago. Just from that one visit, you could tell he loved spending time there entertaining friends and family! Although your hearts are heavy by his passing, your memories of time spent with him is what you can hold on to.”

“We were also saddened to hear of Roy's passing. Roy is the brother of our son-in-law's mother, Lucy, Roy's sister. We kept our boat at Harsen's Island for many years and would stop by to see Roy on occasion when the family would be out visiting Roy's paradise on the water. Such a generous man with his time and his treasures. A valiant battle to still be here, Roy fought hard. God bless and keep you Roy. We know the family and all your many friends will miss you so much.”

“We were saddened to hear of Mr. Bianchini's passing. We met him a few times attending sporting events at Derby and Seaholm where he was cheering on his grandsons as we were our boys. I know through Veronica what a truly special man he was and how loved and cherished he was by his family. Though in recent years we know he had been ill he certainly lived a long and wonderful life. We know you will miss him but hope that memories of him always bring smiles to your lips and warmth to your hearts. Karen and John Howell (sons, Cooper and Mack).”
